No

Yes

Not at all actually 14th august was my 1st day in college so little bit surprised.

The most significant challenge I had faced to present oneself in front of people and that challenge I'll continue to face because it will help me to grow at certain extent.

Time management is one of major challenge we faced as we didnt have much time

Time management

Challenge is do best then other team members

Team work

What suggestions will you give for the betterment of the same activity to be replicated in future time?

64 responses

No

we can do the same with different nations.

What matters is that you take the opportunity to face the challenge.
So if I get chance I'll definitely give my best.

No, everything was up to the mark.

Good going👍.. these activities are very helpful for us..

Inform before 1 or 2 week

Inform about expo before 1-2 week for Better planning

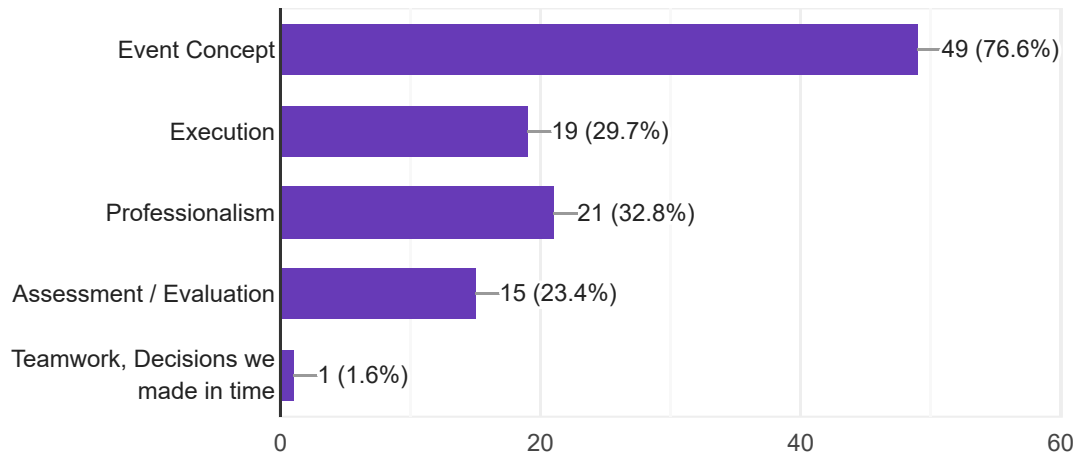

There should be

Faculty should help the students those who are weak in there performance special
